The 13th Annual Spring Fling was a huge Success

Over 480 people came out to play some games, spend some money, enjoy some excellent food, and honor some of MSU-Northern's student athletes. Among the recognized were the All-Americans, which included Chris Nile, Isaac Bartel, Andrew Bartel, Matthew Weber, Brandon Weber, and Ryan Reeves. They also awarded Max Erickson with the Bob Bricker Shining Light Award for his continued support of the NLASF over the years.

Northern Crowns Four at MSU Rodeo

After a long winter break, the MSU-Northern Rodeo team was back in action in Bozeman at the 2018 MSU Spring Rodeo on April 14-15. The Lights and Skylights performed well at the annual rodeo held at the Brick Breeden Fieldhouse and saw four student-athletes secure championships: Zane Marcenko (L) in Steer Wrestling, John Bell (R) in Team Roping, Tara Stimpson in Barrel Racing, and Kassidy Taylor Williamson in Goat Tying.

Eighth Annual TekNoXpo

High school students from all over North-Central Montana came to MSU-Northern's 8th annual TekNoXpo (Technology-Knowledge-Exposition). Students were split into four teams, and got to experience presentations that exposed them to careers in agriculture, automotive, construction, diesel, health care, and criminal Justice. Students attending these presentations were able to explore academic pathways to exciting and financially rewarding life-long careers delivered to them by industry experts and professors in the field.

Student Art Exhibit at Artitude Gallery

Joel Soiseth and Steve Helmbrecht invite you to the 2018 spring semester student art exhibition, which features work from the watercolor, photography, and ceramics classes. The show opened this week and will run until April 27. The works are on display at the Artitudes Gallery upstairs in the Atrium Mall.

There will be an opening reception for these student artists on Friday, April 20, in the Artitude Gallery starting at 6 PM.

Come see the show and meet some of these talented young artists.

Rugburns Dinner Theatre

If you're standing on the argument rug, you must tell the truth and everyone has to listen. At least that's the rule to begin with! Three couples. One stranger. A piece of tacky, orange carpet. Guns, whip cream, negligees, golf clubs, broken glass, amnesia and blackmail. What could possibly go wrong in this high-energy and outrageous comedy?

Written by MAT's Artistic Director, Jay Pyette, Rugburns is back. After successfully touring the state several years ago, the show has been polished and is ready for dinner theatre!
