Nineteenth Annual MSUN Cowboy Christmas

One of the highlights of the year is the MSU-Northern Rodeo Cowboy Christmas fundraiser! Almost 500 ranchers and rodeo fans came together to support MSU-Northern's rodeo program. The evening featured an outstanding meal, 30 live-auction items and 45 silent-auction items, dancing, and door prizes. "We're very thankful the community comes out to support the MSU-Northern rodeo team. It's a great fun-filled night," said Rodeo Coach Doug Kallenberger.

It All Starts With a Seed

Like us, many of our plant and animal foods begin from small seeds whose contributions are often not recognized nor appreciated. A group of MSU-Northern agricultural students visited Wild Horse Seeds this past Friday afternoon and were taken on a wonderful tour by Nick Lowen and other employees.

Once again, I am going to do something a little different. This week's TidBit is going to be about the TidBit. The very first TidBit came out in the Northern Network News (NNN) January 26, 2007.

The first TidBit said, "Betty Clark was the first female MOA (Montana Officials Association) sanctioned basketball referee in the state of Montana. Her officiating jersey is currently in the west display case in the Cowan Hall North entryway. (This Northern Tidbit was provided by Northern's own trivia guru Bill Lanier. I hope to make this a weekly column so keep watching)."
