New Business:

The committee briefly discussed the concerns presented by Grant Bowker regarding the application of the proposed Analytical Problem Solving draft rubric as part of the general education assessment strategy. Grant's concerns were fully addressed by the committee and he will collaborate with Cristy to prepare language for the draft rubric prior to the next meeting.

Valerie and Gwen worked together to review the contents of the Humanities/Creative Thinking draft rubrics and determined that it would not be possible to combine these areas into a single rubric. As such, they created separate draft rubrics presently titled Humanities Appreciation and Creative Activities. These will be discussed further at the next meeting.

The committee has finalized the draft of the rubric titled Cultural Competence and it is ready to be disseminated to all faculty for review at a later date.

Spike partially created a Technology draft rubric. Cristy and Spike will complete this draft to be discussed further at the next meeting.

Kasthuri agreed to review the existing Critical Thinking draft rubric prior to the next meeting.

It was decided the committee would meet again on Wednesday November 18, 2020 at 3:00 p.m.

Meeting adjourned at 4:07 p.m.
