

Minutes from the Student Senate meeting 01/22/14.

Call to order at 4:04, with the pledge of allegiance, there was a quorum present.

Attendance: Andrew Potter, Annie Kling, Ron Kling, Joe Vernon, Eric Neal, Denise Brewer, Kim Watson, John Schmidt, Ashley Betzel, Wendy White, Brad Shields, Lexie Leelbetter, Ashley Carney, Anthony Little, Cassy Taberna, Darlene Bricker.

Old Business:

- We talked about some possibilities of events we could do for earth day, and how we could involve the community and other clubs on campus.
- We decided to table the idea of getting the graduating class together for a luncheon with the foundation, this idea is to be brought up again in the fall semester.

New Business:

- We talked about maybe doing tea and finger sandwiches, something classy like that, instead of a luncheon; for the senate's meeting with the new provost, and the possibility of getting some members of some clubs on campus, to help serve at said meeting.
- Denise talked about the need for a couple of people to help out at the upcoming Northern ball.

Clubs/Committee reports:

- S.E.A talked about their upcoming Special Olympics dance, and the possibility of getting some clubs on campus to help them with it.
- Kim said that the first candidate for the culture diversity position is having an open forum on Friday, and to attend if you are available.
- We talked more about the Valentine's dance, and how the senate can help by helping to set up for it.
- We took a look at this fiscal year's account balances, which were inaccurate as far as what our total budgets are.
- Annie asked Joe to write up accountability expenditure for the sustainability committee, to see better how that budget is being used.

Meeting Adjourned at 4:31.
